NEW PRAYER BOOK

"A prayer book is the most accessible window into the Jewish soul; this new edition reflects the challenges and opportunities faced by a new generation."

Rabbi Prof Jonathan Magonet, Editor

The new siddur has arrived! This has been seven years in the making, and we, together with other Reform communities in the UK have contributed to its development. We have tried the several draft versions, we have held meetings, study sessions and many discussions, and have fed back comments to the editors. At last the finished product has emerged: a fine, attractive, book which will be a joy to own and use.

We shall be using the new books regularly from the opening of our new building this autumn.

We do hope that as many of our members as possible will buy their own copy of the book, which is currently available in three different styles, priced as follows:

Standard (blue cover) edition	£ 19.95
Deluxe (leather-like cover, gilt finish) edition	£ 29.95
Compact edition (very small print)	£ 9.95

(It is also planned to produce an A4-size large-print edition, to be available in 2009)

To purchase copies of the new prayer book, please complete the order form below and return it with your cheque (made payable to Cheshire Reform Congregation) as soon as possible.

Would you also like to sponsor a (red cover) Synagogue copy? Your donation will be marked by a bookplate in your name, which may commemorate a special occasion or be in memory of a loved one.
